UK University Degree
without leaving Cyprus!

Teaching and Learning

You will be taught through a combination of lectures, seminars and practical workshops. Seminars in smaller groups will enable you to discuss and develop your understanding of topics covered in lectures. In addition, you will meet with your academic personal tutor. A variety of strategies that aim to foster independent, critical learning will be used in different forms, varying from module to module.

All modules have lectures, alongside discussions, student-led seminars, individual and group tutorials, moots, negotiations and role plays. There will also be a practical dimension to your learning.

Assessment

There is a formal or 'summative' assessment at the end of each module. Assessment methods include written examinations and a range of coursework assessments such as essays, reports, portfolios, performance and presentations. The grades from formal assessments count towards your module mark.

Assessment methods are designed to help you develop the skills required by employers and for professional body purposes.

Enrolment and Duration

This is a three-year full time programme. Each academic year usually commences in the first week of October and, in some cases, the last week of September. The academic year runs for a period of 28 weeks. Students may enroll up to two weeks before the course starting date however, early enrolment is advised as places are limited.
